

General terms for using the WIFI of Hotel WICC

These terms and conditions apply to the WIFI network of Hotel WICC, which you can use for free. By using this service you automatically agree with the conditions below and you undertake to comply with these terms and conditions.

We do not provide technical support for using the network and / or configuring your wireless internet connection. If you are not well-known with computers or computer networks, we advise you to read your equipment's manual and help pages. We also advise you always to use an antivirus and firewall program on your equipment.

The use of WIFI network is based on a fair use policy. This means there is no fixed limit on the amount of data that can be send and received, other than restrictions imposed by the underlying internet provider. Hotel WICC cannot give any guarantees regarding the speed of the internet connection. This usually will be tailored to the number of guests, so that everyone can normally use internet applications such as e-mail (webmail) and visit websites. It is therefore possible that broadband applications (such as video and speech) do not work or do not work optimally. Hotel WICC can intervene if significantly more data traffic is used than the average user.
